The Ahmadiyya Anjuman Isha'at Islam ("Ahmadiyya Association for the propagation of Islam") based at Lahore, Pakistan is an international organisation (founded 1914) devoted purely to the propagation of Islam by literary and missionary means. The Founder of the Ahmadiyya Movement, Hadrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (1835-1908), proclaimed to the modern world that a solely materialistic progress would lead mankind to self-destruction; and that only a spiritual awakening as effected by Islamic teachings can save the world, as it did once before at the dawn of Islam.

Ninety years ago he prophesied the Second Rising of Islam, which is to be a free, world-wide acceptance of Islamic principles brought about by the triumph of argument and moral beauty. Coercion, intolerance, and fanaticism are utterly alien to Islam which has never spread by the force of any army or state, but by the inherent beauty of its teachings.
